

The Albany City Council is forwarding a letter of protest to the San Francisco newspaper which published a feature story on Albany Hill in its latest Sunday edition.

The story, according to Council members and some Hill residents, encouraged its readers to visit the Hill and trespass on private property, while it criticized the design and construction of many of the homes and praised the design of one "country mailbox."

In remarking on the article and the fact that it brought out many curiosity seekers to the Hill on Sunday, Councilman Lewis Howell said it was a "regrettable story," and the area residents may have to post no trespassing signs on their property now.

"In all my years of living in Albany, this will be the first time a citizen will have to post his property."

Charles Sutter of 717 Hillside Ave. protested the description of his home as a "bastard chalet," saying the article was "degrading" to him and his family, and brought dishonor to the people of Albany.

Leon Rimov of 715 Hillside

Ave., architect and designer of many of the homes on the Hill, called the article "humiliating," and read a letter from one of his clients which relieved him of his architectural services on a proposed $5,000,000 apartment complex, "because of the adverse publicity" he received in the article.

The local architect, who claims the story "defames" his reputation, is seeking legal council on the matter.

In a further discussion on the Hill and the proposed park, vs. an apartment house complex (which he indicated was at the bottom of the article), he presented the Council with an alternative plan for a park in conjunction with "Sunset Walk," the trail area which connects Hillside and Washington Avenues.

Rimov said the area, which is now an "eyesore," could be greatly improved by extending the area 50 to 60 feet and making a mini-park. His drawing of the plan, which he presented to the Council, included a totlot, an adult recreation area, a climb-up tower, and even a waterfall, which he stated could upgrade the area of "urban blight" by revitalizing and redeveloping existing property, and would not remove large areas of land from the tax rolls.

For a sum of approximately $70,000 the City could have a bona-fide mini park, instead of attempting to acquire a large parcel of land on the Hill which would not only be expensive to buy, but which might not be so easily developed.

Bringing the discussion of Albany Hill and the newspaper story to a close, Councilman Hubert Call, whose home was described as "an elegant home, what looks like a back alley," requested a letter be sent to the newspaper, protesting the article and its description of the homes, and demanding an explanation of why such an article was allowed to be printed.

An Appeal?

Members of the Albany City Council are awaiting a copy of Judge Robert L. Bostwick's decision concerning their action on refusing to approve Councilman Richard Clark's appointment of Herbert Rubin to the Planning and Zoning Commission.

A memo sent to City Attorney Larry Sailer, indicated the Judge had ruled in favor of Clark, but until a complete written decision is received, many questions are as yet unanswered.

"If the decision is against us," Councilman Lewis Howell commented, "it is my opinion that we should appeal it to the Appellate Court."

The Council expects to receive a copy of the decision sometime next week.

City Clerk Resigns

The Albany City Council received a communication from Althea Ippolito, submitting her resignation from the position of City Clerk, for "personal reasons," effective July 15.

The Council will now sit in executive session to review applications for her replacement.

Council Action

The City Council approved two new employees for the Police Dept., at Monday night's meeting. Elizabeth Dalrymple has been hired as a temporary typist-clerk, and James Tighe as a part-time relief clerk-typist. Tighe's

CHANGE:

Because many people will be observing a 4-day weekend, due to the 4th of July holiday, the Albany City Council meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 5, at 8 p.m. in the Council Chambers.

hiring will be subject to the approval of the Federal government, as the position is subsidized through the government's Public Employment Program.

A simulated "mortgage burning" ceremony was also held during the Council meeting, concluding the final indebtedness for the Albany library bonds, in the amount of $65,000, which voters originally approved in 1951.

A 4-0 approval was also given to a resolution appointing Edward L. Howe of 827 Talbot to the Civil Service Commission, replacing Del Wisenor, who resigned from the position following his appointment as manager of the El Cerrito Chamber of Commerce. Councilman Richard Clark abstained from voting on the resolution.

Council members also approved an agreement for laboratory services between the County Supervisors and the City, as well as a request from City Administrator James Turner, authorizing the transfer of funds so that "all expenditures and revenues may be reflected in their proper place," at the end of the fiscal year.

At the request of Councilman Hubert Call, the subject of adopting a mandatory city garbage collection regulation will be put on next week's agenda, for discussion.

NOTICE

One of the few holidays still being celebrated on its own date is Independence Day, July 4. This year it falls on Tuesday, and local residents are reminded not to forget to fly our country's flag on that day, remembering what the colors stand for—Red for courage, White for purity, and Blue for justice.

Tax Increase

Members of the Albany City Council are busy going over the proposed City Budget with City administrator James Turner—a budget which, if adopted without change, will increase Albany axes 30 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, to a total of $2.04.

In presenting the $1,987,054 preliminary budget to the Council, Turner noted that the primary increase reflects in the proposed rehabilitation of Park and Recreation facilities adjacent to the high school and Memorial Park, plus the purchase of an additional pumper for the Fire Department.

Turner also called the Council's attention to the fact that the proposed budget does not include possibly pay raises for city employees—an item that would boost the budget even higher.

It was also noted that the City has a more or less constant income, and although expenses tend to increase from 5 to 7% per year, income seems to be limited to from 2 to 3 percent.

Another budget item on the increase, Turner said, is pensions—a relatively minor item originally, but now one that ranks among the "Big Three," the other two being the General Fund and Park and Recreation Fund expenditures.

It is hoped that the Utility User's Tax, imposed by the City last year, will be somewhat more helpful in the next year. Turner said it should bring in more money when the "existing under-payments" on local telephone bills are rectified.

ON HAND recently, to make final plans for Albany Day at the Alameda County Fair, which opens next Sunday, were: Albany Chamber of Commerce member, Bud Read; Fair Director and Chamber member, Johnny Pleich, and Chamber Manager Hal Denham. The fair, which runs from July 2 through July 16, will celebrate its Diamond Anniversary this year. Albany Day will be observed on Thursday, July 6.

Accident Ends Seniors' Trip

What started out recently as a fun-filled trip by bus and train to the old Sierra mining town of Jamestown, ended disappointingly for members of the Albany Senior Citizens' Center, when 10 cars of the train on which they were riding, derailed and caught fire.

After waiting over an hour for the Jamestown train to meet their bus from Albany, the Seniors were enjoying their ride in the Sierra Madre coach (which has been featured on TV's "Pet-

Fire Warning

The Albany Fire Dept. has requested the citizens of Albany to clear all dry grass from around structures and fences for a distance of five feet. This precaution is being taken due to the extended dry spell being experienced all over the state this year.

According to Fire Dept. officials, now is the best time to clear away the grass, before it has matted down, making it more difficult to remove and creating a greater danger.

In keeping with this precaution, citizens are also warned that it is illegal to discharge fireworks within the Albany city limits, and parents are urged to inform their children of this local and State law. All illegal fireworks will be confiscated by the Police and destroyed.

Cooperation by parents in previous years has been outstanding, resulting in a minimum fire loss in the community from illegal fireworks.

Local Talent Needed

Local amateur talent is being sought to take part in a talent contest as part of the Albany-Berkeley Day observance at the Alameda County Fair, to be held Thursday, July 6.

There will be two age groups in the competition—one 14 years and younger, the second 15 years and older. Winners from this contest will appear in the final program on Saturday, July 15, with a possible invitation to appear later this summer at the Cal-Expo Amateur Talent Show in Sacramento.

For further information, please call the Chamber of Commerce office, 525-1771.

NOTICE

Dedication ceremonies for Albany's new 60 ft. flag pole will be held at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, June 29, at the foot of Buchanan St. on the overpass above Cleveland.

Spectators wishing to view the ceremony are urged to park in the vicinity of Buchanan and Cleveland, then proceed up the stairs to the walkway along the Freeway.

Mayor Joe Carlevaro will accept the flag pole from the Albany Chamber of Commerce for the City of Albany, and the Berkeley Elks Lodge Americanization Committee will present their Flag Ceremony, with the assistance of local Scout groups.

The cost of the project is being financed by voluntary contributions from individuals and organizations in the immediate area.

Bus to the Fair

The Albany Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a bus trip to the Alameda County Fair and races on Albany-Berkeley Day, Thursday, July 6.

Reservations should be made as soon as possible, as seating on the bus will be limited to not more than 45 people. Tickets, at $3 each, include general admission, reserved seats at the races, and round trip transportation, and may be obtained at the Chamber office, 1108 Solano Ave.

Kathy McKenna, Maid of Albany, will present a floral tribute to the winner of the featured "Albany race."

The bus will leave from in front of the Chamber office at noon and return to Albany at 8 p.m. For further information, please call the Chamber office, 525-1771.

Chamber Elects

The Albany Chamber of Commerce has elected three of its members to one year terms on the Board of Directors.

This action was taken at last week's Chamber meeting, upon the request of incoming president, Dick Mills.

The three are: Albany City Councilman Hubert F. Call, architect Leon Rimov, and Bill Johnson, attorney.

Resignations were accepted from Joe Dagna and Elmer Coble, Dagna, an El Cerrito resident, resigned because he is no longer an Albany businessman, & Coble, former director of the Albany YMCA, and more recently with the Jim Woulfe Ford Agency, has announced his retirement.

Because of his many years with the Chamber, Coble will be made an "honorary member," according to Chamber President Ralph Hill.

Albany's Old Time 4th

Albany's annual old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration will again be held at Memorial Park, with activities getting underway at 9:30 a.m. with the first of two feature baseball games, followed by an arts and crafts exhibit at 10 and a men's horseshoe pitching contest at 11.

Other activities will include the annual boys' and girls' watermelon eating contest at noon, followed by a girls' baseball game at 12:30.

The family participation contests will begin at 2 p.m., with races for boys and girls from two years of age and up. For teenagers there will be a softball throw, a 50 yard dash, and an egg-catching contest.

Men and women may also participate in their own softball throw, a 50-yard dash for ages 21 to 34 and 35 to 65, as well as an egg-catching contest. From 1 to 3 p.m., students of the Albany Park and Recreation Dept's Cake Decorating Classes will hold their 2nd annual show, with more than 100 cakes on exhibit, along with cake decorating demonstrations. According to Bud Rooney, Dept. superintendent, this show will be bigger and better than last year's.

NOTICE

Because of the July 4 holiday, the Albany Times will observe early deadlines for the next issue. News copy deadline, Friday noon; display advertising, Friday, 5 p.m., and classified ads Monday at noon.

C of C Dinner

Reservations are coming in for the annual Albany Chamber of Commerce Installation Dinner, set for Thursday evening, June 29, at the Lucky 13 Club.

A steak dinner will be served at 8 p.m., preceded by a no-host cocktail hour at 7. Alameda County Supervisor Joseph Bort will install the new officers, headed by Richard Miles as incoming president.

Excellent entertainment will be provided by Ed Hennessy, comedian and musician, director of both amateur and professional shows for the Alameda County Fair, scheduled to open Sunday, July 2.

The dinner and program will be open to everyone, regardless of membership in the Chamber. Tickets, at $6.75 each, are available at the C of C office, 1108 Solano Avenue, or from any director of the organization. For information call 525-1771.

High 12 Meets

Fifty-year Masons, past presidents, and the "ladies" of Club members will be honored when the Albany High Twelve Club meets Friday, June 30, at 6:30 p.m. in Kirby's Banquet Room.

Masons to be honored include: Robert Butler, Fred Beeson, Walter Holland, William Peters, Ervin Clausen, Henry Oman, Leo Graham, Walter Kees, Eric Swenson, William Phillips, Harold Roberts, Harry Peterson, Clarence Warrington, Frederick Nicholas, William Klienhammer, Oscar Gorenson and Niles Millar.

Past presidents include: Cecil Lavers, Roy Harford, Walter Holland, Harold Denham, Dr. Everett Coe, Gartner Thomas, Ervin Clausen, Louis Stein, Jr., Harold Brillhart, Wallace MacMillan, Herbert Rounds, Samuel Dows, George Hein and Ted Fairclough.

Curt Danner, the only charter member of Albany Little League still active on the Board of Directors, is recovering from emergency surgery at Merritt Hospital where he is receiving royal treatment. The nurses all remember his daughter, who trained there, and also worked there as a full-fledged nurse following her training.

Incidentally, the daughter, now Mrs. Miles Mallette of Oroville, just presented the Danners with their second grandson.

Harumi Ban, Albany AFS student from Japan, will be leaving his Albany family, the Robert Luomas, July 5, for a visit to the Pacific Northwest (with other local AFS students), before embarking for his return trip to his home in Sapporo. Harumi's JAL plane (Japan Air Lines) will leave the San Francisco International Airport at 1 p.m., Thursday, July 15, to return him to his home and family he hasn't seen in almost a year. He will be sadly missed by all his American friends, who hope he will pay a return visit sometime in the future.

Have you heard... that Mary Aloio of Albany is cousin to Joseph Alioto? Yes, little Mary claims kinship with San Francisco's well-known mayor. Incidentally she just celebrated a birthday on June 13, and said that not being a union member—it was business as usual at her place of employment in Berkeley that day. However, she celebrated with close friends in the evening.

Steve Hill, son of Mrs. Blanche Hill and a 1967 Albany High School graduate, has received an award for his services and outstanding contribution to "Operation Breakthrough," a Santa Barbara project of youth assistance and drug abuse education. Steve, currently majoring in psychology at UC Santa Barbara, is a volunteer counselor helping troubled teen-agers, as well as prisoners in a Southern California federal penitentiary. Isn't it good to hear something on the "plus" side of today's young people.

Would you believe—Josephine Foley will observe her 78th birthday on Sunday, July 2? Because some of the family were planning to be away on that date, a family celebration was held last Sunday, hosted by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Matlock, in their Los Gatos home.

It was quite a family gathering—with just about all the relatives there—including 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The only one missing was Barbara Foley, Jo's granddaughter, who is attending summer school at Chico State. Happy birthday, Jo—and may you celebrate many, many more!

Does anyone know—when Ralph Nader is going to check malfunctioning turn signals? There seems to be a great many autos traveling our streets and

80th Birthday

Mrs. Leona Stanley, a former Albany resident now residing in El Cerrito, celebrated her 80th birthday last week.

Mrs. Stanley, a resident of Albany from 1910 until early this year, when she moved to her daughter's home on Albermarle in El Cerrito, is the mother of Mrs. Leona Bluth of El Cerrito, and Mathew and Raymond Stanley. All three of her children were born in Albany. She also has nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Her husband, the late Mathew Stanley, was an Albany City employee, and her brother, John Reiley was the first paid Fire Chief in Albany—previously all members of the Fire Dept. were volunteers.

Mrs. Stanley is a member of the Catholic Ladies Aid Society of St. Ambrose Church, and the Albany Senior Citizens, although because of ill health she has not been able to attend activities recently.

Note of Thanks

At 3:40 a.m. the morning of July 19, my wife placed an emergency call to the Albany Police Dept. in my behalf. Within a matter of minutes, Sgt. Jim Harris and a fellow officer were assisting my wife in an emergency. These officers gave a credit to their profession, and also to their department. We would like to thank both officers for their kindness and understanding in our emergency. My heartiest appreciation to the administration of the Department for their loyalty and regard for the health and welfare of the citizens of Albany.

Sincerely,
JOHN F. KELLY

Limited class size will encourage individual discussion with the guest experts. Samples of foods cooked will be available for all to taste, and recipes will be distributed at all sessions.

The class will run for eight weeks, beginning July 10 and will be held Monday evenings, from 7-10 p.m. at the Albany Community Center kitchen, in University Village. Cost for the entire series is $12.00.

Have You Heard?

freeways with turn-signals not working. Or haven't you noticed?

Fern Luoma, of the Albany Little League Luomas, reports that the League has a backlog of "found" items, collected following recent Little League games at University Village. Among these items is a valuable retainer (for straightening teeth), which some baseball fan (or player) misplaced. For further information please call Mrs. Luoma at 526-1311.

Interesting fact—signatures on a recent "Albany Hill Park" petition contained the signatures of 77 University Village residents, 18 from El Cerrito, 2 from Richmond, and 11 from Albany.

In honor of John McDonald's first meeting as Albany Lions Club president, club members presented John, of McDonald's hamburgers, with a hot dog from Doggie Diner! Did he eat the "whole thing?"

A bouquet to members of the Albany High School graduating class from one of the employees at El Cerrito's Lucky Lanes, where they held their all-night graduation party. According to "Fran," it was one of the best behaved groups of young people she has ever seen. Over 200 youngsters bowled, danced and played games until the bus came to pick them up in the early morning hours, without a bit of trouble. Another plus for our young people!

Chess buffs please note—a play-by-play account of what is predicted to be the most exciting World Championship Chess Match—between America's challenger Bobby Fischer and World Champ Boris Spassky of the USSR—will be presented locally, each Friday at 7:30 p.m. over Channel 9 KQED.

U.S. Air Force Capt. Steven E. Icardi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Icardi of Colusa Ave., Berkeley, has entered the Air Force Institute of Technology, to study toward a master's degree in aeronautical engineering.

Another "birthday child" who was feted at a surprise family party last Sunday, is Kathryn Etingoff, who was honored on her 75th birthday by a family gathering at her house. Although it was planned as a "surprise," family members aren't sure if it was. As grandson Bruce Barrows says, "You can't put much over on old Hawk-eye—she's really sharp." Family members attending included 7 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE M. TROTTA, of 727 Key Route Blvd., were recently honored at an Open House, given for them by their two sons and their wives, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Champagne was served to the guests by the hosts and hostesses, and refreshments were served by the grandchildren. Relatives and close friends came to congratulate the happy couple from Southern California, Napa and Vallejo, as well as Spokane, Washington.

Ice Follies Comes to Town

Whisper, bark and shout — that's what Karen, Snoopy and Mr. Frick are doing about the Ice Follies' all new production coming to the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum on July 5, with nine performances running thru July 9.

Karen Kreage will be featured with Ricky Ingles in "Let Your Spirit Soar," one of the most fantastic productions ever staged on ice. With blonde hair flying — skates flashing, and a smile that sparkles with enthusiasm, she will also captivate the audience in the production number "Down on the Bayou."

Snoopy, not to be outdone by Karen, is still claiming to be the world's most famous skater, and will perform even more daring routines than last year. There's no telling where Snoopy will pop up during the show — he loves his adventurous new life as a skater.

Mr. Frick, the Swiss master of the ice, is celebrating his 33rd season with the Ice Follies, and in honor of the occasion he will take an Alaskan expedition to the North Pole for a production number.

As a very special added attraction, world champion skater Peggy Fleming will make her only Bay Area appearance of the season, when the Ice Follies opens on July 5.

Tickets will be priced at $5.50, $4.50, $3.50 and $3, and opening night, July 5, will be a benefit performance for the Easter Seal Society.
